

What a beautiful summer day!
It's quiet in the garden.
But a lot is happening.

There are yellow eggs on a leaf.
A black-and-yellow caterpillar is born.
Do you see it too?

The caterpillar eats from its petal.
Then he sees a new animal crawling out of an egg on another flower.
He sets off to check it out.
Who could this other little animal be?